Experience & Expertise

Philipp regularly advises on the impact and the consequences of Brexit by virtue of entertaining a very international practice and corresponding expertise. As of late, he has helped companies to enter and leave the markets of England & Wales. Philipp is qualified in England & Wales, Germany and Luxembourg, which makes him a unique Member of the Bar. Philipp's international legal capacity is matched by corresponding linguistic capabilities to provide for seamless legal advice across borders. Philipp has retained his links with the German and Luxembourg Bar by virtue of being a partner in MMS Avocats, a Luxembourg based law firm with a representative office in Düsseldorf, Germany. Philipp is able to accept instructions concerning German and Luxembourgish law and is able to act and rely on infrastructure in both jurisdictions. By providing a legal bridge where cases have a foreign element Philipp's assistance becomes more comprehensive, quicker and cheaper than a solution built on teams from various jurisdictions co-operating. Based on his international expertise, Philipp has advised former cabinet ministers of Luxembourg's government on European Competition Law matters. In 2013, Philipp became an Accredited Mediator.

Current & Recent Work

Philipp frequently acts in respect of cross border mergers under the Companies (Cross Border Mergers) Regulations 2007 and appeared in the Companies Court and the High Court on a number of occasions. Philipp, instructed by The Wilkes Partnership, currently advises the GT-racing wing of a Formula 1 team on the recovery of a vehicle from Germany.

On instructions from Jones Day, acted in the context of the Hellas Telecommunications (Luxembourg) II S.C.A. insolvency, one of the largest pre-arranged insolvencies, ever. The company had issued € 960 million in subordinated notes in Luxembourg, before filing for insolvency in England. In a situation where limitation was looming under Luxembourgish law, he advised the English liquidators on procedural aspects and prospects of success in respect of claims by the company against its former directors in Luxembourg
